LITTLE MIAMI—A RIVER OF EVENTS

DEDICATION

RICHARD S. WHITACRE

Oak Hill, wherein he did start his measured way,
Still stands to function his value in living minds;
These fair grounds and trees exemplified for him
No less the light of truth, the honesty of beauty for him
Than they do for me or friend--
They do so still.

The chameleonic river close by and this small town
Where summer's suns and winter's dawns,
Where autumn's skies and spring's soft nights
Did their all to feed his Hellenic dreams,
And far off lands where he did run to challenge
Not that which was or is abroad, but his own quick mind;
And turning once again to Morrow town
And taking fine wife and having fair child
Moved closer within Oak Hill, the flow of the trees,
The pull of the river, the charm of the town--
Than e'er he had before.

His measured path he now has walked;
All values leaves he behind,
All else moves on to serve, to obey,
To stop, to leave, as he, all values
To the glory of his and my God.

Protzman Diehl

A DAY BEGINS

"Rivers are roads that move and carry us whither we wish to go."--Pascal

Education, the maker of men, the breaker of the wall of ignorance, the builder of intelligence, takes us down to the river of knowledge as each bend and waterfall lead us on to new insights.

"The desire of knowledge, like the thirst of riches, increases ever with the acquisition of it."--Sterne

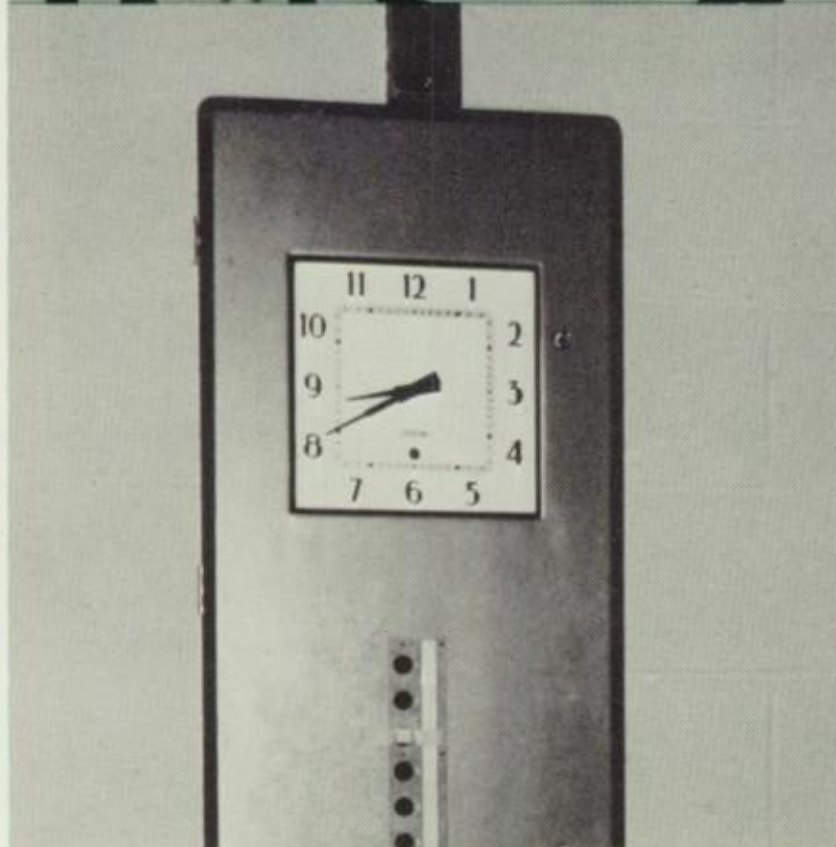

7:58 a.m. Students enter the building to start a new day.

8:00 a.m. GLENN BROCK, JOHN FITZER, and JEFF BRAVERMAN take care of our school flag in all kinds of weather.

8:40 a.m. Halfway through the first period of that new day.

10:20 a.m. KENT WARD, ROSALYN TOLLIVER, AND DEBBIE WEIS try to explain to MR. CURRAN that the bus did not stop for them!

A YEAR OF ACTION . . .

HOMER OLIVER,
EXECUTIVE
 HEAD

Little Miami Local School District

An admiral of the fleet of learning, traveling down the river of knowledge, MR. OLIVER stands steadfast while weathering the rapids of the unenlighted. When MR. OLIVER became skipper, several snags had to be cleared: establishing and promoting libraries in the three elementary schools and the junior high school, broadening the school curriculum, improving the vocational programs, and updating the textbooks. Running a tight ship, he sacrifices all so that students may receive their utmost in education.

MRS. LAURA CORWIN, Secretary

FERNANDO CRESS,
PRINCIPAL

*Little Miami
High School*

A WORD OF WELCOME

At the helm of our flagship of education, MR. CRESS commands us to a new year of learning.

Born in Hagard, Kentucky, in 1937, MR. CRESS graduated from Union College with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1959. He earned his Master's Degree in Education at Eastern Kentucky State College in 1964.

As a classroom teacher and assistant principal here at Little Miami, we see our leader working for:

- a broader curriculum
- expanded vocational education
- improved language facilities
- self-discipline in every student
- cooperation in every student
- improved athletic facilities

GREETINGS TO THE SENIORS

I would like to congratulate each of you, graduating class of 1966, upon reaching a milestone in your life. Each of you has spent many hours of hard work and study to reach this point. Now that you have a high school diploma, don't feel that you are through with your education. Use it as a beginning of a more intensive search for knowledge.

Set your goals high and always work toward them, never become satisfied with yourself, be better than the average person graduating from high school. Remember, you only get out of life what you put in it. Always work and play hard, and the rewards will be many for you.

It has been a real pleasure being your principal for the past year. May your future hold much happiness and success.

Fernando Cress
